

GLOBAL SURRENDER TO love CEREMONY

MAY 12TH AT 7:15 P.M. PACIFIC

3 Step Toolkit by Rikka Zimmerman

The below step by step toolkit is to prepare you for the Global Surrender to Love Ceremony with Rikka Zimmerman broadcasted LIVE on May 12, 2017 from Los Angeles, California.

Print this toolkit and do this exercise before the event. Enjoy!

Step #1

Find a quiet place and begin your personal ceremony. First, let's get grounded and present. Imagine that your feet are energetically moving into the center of the earth. You can imagine that they are roots of a tree anchoring deep into the center of the earth. Feel the balanced grounding energy of earth and take a deep breath breathing that energy up through your body and out through your head. Feel deeper into the vibration of our divine Mother Earth even deeper and breathe that energy up through your body and out through your head. Relax your body even more as you energetically fall even deeper into the support and love of Mother Earth.

Step #2

Now, let's connect you with your divine self. Bring your awareness all the way up into the heavenly realms. Feel into the lightest and highest vibration that you can find. Even lighter, even higher, even lighter, even higher, even lighter and even higher. Good. Now breathe that energy down through your crown and out through your feet, opening up a flow between you and your divinity. Bring your awareness up again and say, "I now invoke the presence of source and the angels to come into my experience." Feel the energy of their love and breathe that energy down through your crown and out through your feet. Now, let's expand your heart allowing you to be in that much love. Imagine that you are giving your heart to that love, from source, and the angels. Imagine that your heart is expanding even bigger, even wider, even bigger, even wider, even bigger, and even wider until it encompasses the love you feel from source and the angels.

Step #3

Let me ask you, "Are you willing to surrender to love in totality?" In this moment you might feel both "Yes!" and "No." This is completely normal. Who you think you are and what you think life is, is like an energetic box. When you are about to make a choice that will expand you outside that box, you will simultaneously be presented with the energy that is beyond the box, and the energy that has kept you in the box. Now comes the moment that your soul has been waiting for. "Will you go around your old energetic box and choose to surrender to love in totality anyway?" Yes! Wonderful! Take a deep breath and get completely present with every part of you. Place your hand on your heart and say aloud, "I now surrender to love in totality. I now release anything that does not serving my highest good. I now surrender to love in totality. I now release anything that is not serving my highest good. I now surrender to love in totality. I now release anything that is not serving my highest good." You can add, "Love, have your way with me!" Now feel the love that is now flowing from upstairs from outside the box. Breathe that love into your heart.
